

Investment in Romania

Opportunities & Strategy

Investor Guide

Romania offers investors many opportunities to invest in a vibrant economy supported by a robust ecosystem

- Geographical advantages
- Tourism
- Agriculture
- Infrastructure
- Rich natural resources
- Quality workforce
- Education
- IT sector

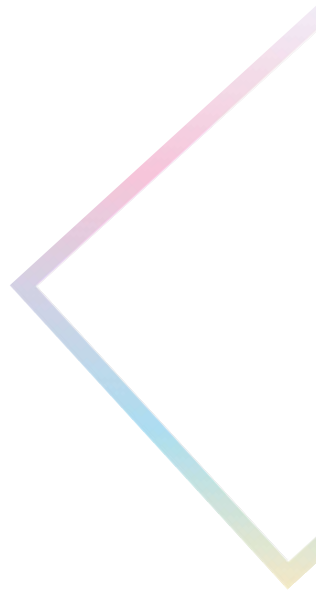

Investing in Romania - a hugely rewarding step towards the future

- Romania has recently taken many steps to promote and encourage foreign investments.
- A democratic political system and membership in the European Union.
- Team of experienced professionals to support you in this endeavor.
- Special experience in the online environment, expertise in business and investments.
- Full assistance in the field of investment, directly from our specialists.

What investment areas does Romania offer?

Romania has attracted investments from several global and European companies across a wide range of industries and sectors in the recent few years

- Tourism
- Education
- Infrastructure
- Agriculture
- Information Technology
- Automobile and automotive components
- Food processing
- Tourism
- Road & Rail Transportation

Romania offers investors many opportunities to invest in a vibrant economy supported by a robust ecosystem

An advantageous and privileged geographical position

- Easy access to the Black Sea
- Proximity to the Balkans
- Easy gateway to the Middle East
- EU markets are also easily accessible

A highly investor friendly tax system - lowest in the Union

- 5% tax on dividend income
- 16% profit tax
- Modest labor costs
- Tax incentives and a VAT regime of only 19%

Quality Workforce

- Highly skilled labor resources
- Modest wages modest compared EU average
- Young workforce with foreign language skills

Rich Natural Resources

- Enormous reserves of high quality natural resources - oil, natural gas, iron or copper ores, rare and radioactive metals
- The forest-rich areas of Bucovina, Maramureş and Moldova

How can you register a company in Romania

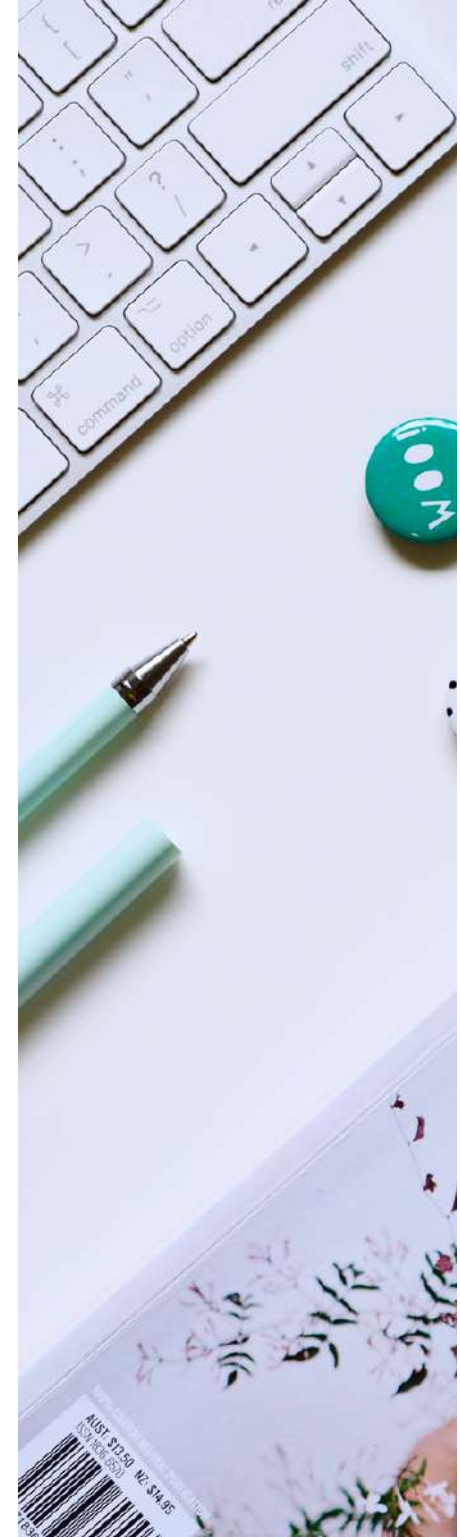

It is easy to register the company in Romania. In recent years there are no more complicated and bureaucratic procedures. Our experts can offer you specialized assistance and support you in setting up the company in the shortest time.

Investor friendly eco-system makes for good ROI in a short time frame

Romania has become a destination sought after by investors and the possibilities are endless. The economic climate is stable and legislation is constantly in line with European requirements. Every step you take will have our support and our competent advice will help you establish a successful enterprise in our country.

What do we offer our investors?

For any business, we are ready to make a feasibility study, the development of the workforce in the area, the establishment of the company and obtaining the necessary approvals for the operation of the business. Our experts offer specialized consultancy for starting business operations in Romania.

-
- End-to-end program management – project initiation, conception phase to design and execution.
 - Fully supervised project.
 - Support in business discussions and negotiations, facilitating meetings with decision-makers of local authorities.
 - Information about suppliers, customers.
 - Analyze the potential of your investment for you to make the most informed decision.

The era of the internet and the expansion of the online experience are greatly helping investors

- A dedicated online platform to view real time status of your project.
- Real-time results and analysis at your fingertips to clarify any questions, address concerns or discuss ideas.
- Constantly updated project status.
- Business and investment activities in strict compliance with the legal framework and regulations in force.

QUALITY

- Investment projects are carefully analyzed by our specialists to provide the ideal implementation framework.
- Specialized legal advice is always available to you.
- We also deal with the preparation of documents required by the Intermediate Body (IB) and by the Managing Authority (MA).
- We also prepare reports to ensure smooth execution of investment contracts.

TRUST

- By collaborating with us, you will obtain a maximum return on investment, with the lowest possible risks.
- The experience of our specialists saves you from bureaucratic steps, wasted time and effort.

ACHIEVING BUSINESS GOALS

- All our services are customized to your needs and expectations.
- Any information necessary to start an investment in Romania is now available through an open, clear collaboration and a transparent communication mechanism.

ROMANIA IS OPEN FOR BUSINESS!